Additional Notes:

- Study abroad is REQUIRED for this major. Talk to an advisor as soon as possible so that you can plan for an experience that will meet your program and language needs.
 - Most students study abroad in the spring semester of the Junior year.
- A minor in a foreign language is REQUIRED for this major.
- FOCUS AREA
 - Must be approved by an advisor
 - At least 15 hour of the focus area must be at or above the 3000 level.
 - Courses in the Global Studies CORE or CORE ELECTIVES area may not be used in the focus area.
- A contract with a list of the approved Focus Area courses MUST be filed with the College of Arts & Sciences Dean’s Office no later than the end of the first semester of junior year.
- Foreign language requirement:
 - Student must take the Foreign Language Placement Test to determine starting course for the foreign language sequence.
 - If Foreign Language 1010 & 1020 taken for prerequisite purposes, they will count in place of 6 hours of Free Electives (3 hours per course).
 - FL 1030 may substitute for FL 1010 & 1020 for some languages; FL 1060 may substitute for FL 1040 & 1050 for some languages.
 - Foreign language classes can be taken in summer semesters.
- Students are required to demonstrate intermediate-level proficiency in a language other than English. Intermediate-level proficiency is demonstrated by successful completion of a 4th-semester language course (FL 1050 or 1060 or CSD 3374). A higher-level language course that requires one of these courses as a prerequisite may also be used to fulfill the requirement.
 - Placement exams are required for several languages. Should a student place higher than the beginning level, any lower level requirements listed on the four year guide will need to be replaced with a free elective if needed for total hours for the degree. Please consult with your advisor for more information.
 - Note: Appalachian's language placement test is designed for placement purposes only, and a score on this test alone is not sufficient to demonstrate intermediate-level proficiency.
